NEW PLANTS ON FOOT

Various Undertakings in Woodworking
Enterprises—Numerous Textiles Industries under Way or Are Being Projected.

Baltimore, Nov. 3.—Intent upon uncovering raw material for industry, extending railroad branches to virgin forests and mineral deposits, and strengthening trade connections with foreign countries as indicated by recent developments in Hampton Roads and the fact that within seven weeks after its appalling disaster Galveston is able to ship a cargo valued at more than $1,000,000 and to be loading at once 36 vessels for foreign ports, southerners are leaving nothing undone to build up local manufacturing enterprises in various lines.

Take woodworking, for instance. Among the contemplated undertakings of the kind during the week noted by the Manufacturers' Record are the rebuilding, enlargement and remodeling of a plant at Ridgedale, Tenn., for the manufacture of boxes and butter tubs; the erection at Knoxville of a 2-story box factory to which will be added a 3-story trunk factory, and the addition of machinery for the manufacture of handles to the boat or factory at the same place; a broom factory at High Point, N. C.; a lumber plant at Damascus with a daily output of 100,000 feet for the development of timberlands at Johnson City, Tenn.; a stove and heading factory at West Point, Miss.; shock factory at Johnson City, Tenn.; and saw mills to develop timber lands in Grundy and Coffee counties, Tennessee, at Kenner, La., at Kirbyville, Tex., and at Leesville, La. It is proposed at Waycross to organize a stock company with a capital of from $100,000 to $200,000 for the erection of gineries, cotton seed oil mills and guano factories; the stove works at Cleveland, Tenn., will double its capacity to 36,000 stoves a year. A company has been organized by men of Pittsburg, Pa., Louisville, Ky., and El Paso, Tex., to establish at the last named place a plant for the manufacture of insulators and other articles of glass.

In textiles, among the announcements are negotiations for waterpower on the Catwba river near Hildebran, N. C., to be used to operate a cotton factory; the incorporation at Columbia, S. C., of the Capital City Cotton mills for the establishment of a 6000-spindle and a 2000-loom mill, with a capital of $100,000; subscriptions amounting to $10,000 for the erection of a knitting mill at Fort Valley, Ga.; the incorporation of the Leaksville House and Power company at Leaksville, N. C., for erection and operation of cotton mills; the establishment of the Farmersville Knitting mill at Farmersville, Va., with the daily capacity of 240 dozen half hose; and the preparation of plans for the development of waterpower at Lancaster, S. C.

Among other industries are ice factories at Abilene, Tex., High Point, N. C., Richmond, Ky., Salisbury, Md., and Anderson, S. C.; paper mill at Crowley, La.; development of zinc mines at Berryville, Ark., of gold mine in Union county, S. C., of gold and copper mines at Kirkpatrick, Ark., brick works at Thunder, Ga., and an entire new plant of the new Neches Iron Works at Beaumont, Tex., to be used for machine shop, forging department and foundry.

Evidences of progress appear also in contracts already let or under contemplation for work upon waterworks or sewerage system or both at Bessemer, Ala., Danville, Ark., Georgetown, Ky., Ruston, La., Buffalo, S. C., Chattanooga, Tenn., Beaumont, Tex., Falls Church, Va., New Iberia, La., and Hattiesburg, Miss.; while here and there electric light plants and the construction or extension of telephone systems are among the improvements.

Robbers Loot a Bank.

Belle, Fontaine, O. Nov. 3.—The Farmers and Merchants' bank at Jackson Center was blown open at 2 o'clock this morning and $5500 was obtained by the robbers. The bank building was wrecked. The citizens were aroused by the explosion and ran into the streets only to be driven in by the heavy armed and masked men. The robbers made their escape on a handcar.

Militia Protect a Prisoner.

Atlanta, Nov. 3.—Governor Candler ordered a company of militia from Atlanta to Jefferson to prevent mob violence to a negro prisoner there. The citizens of Jefferson and Harmony Grove threatened to lynch Gus Fellows, a negro now on trial at Jefferson, charged with assaulting Miss Dolly Hood, near Harmony Grove, and Governor Candler took prompt action to save him.

Jones Getting Well.

New York, Nov. 3.—Charles F. Jones,

secretary and valet of the late William M. Rice, and who was arrested on the charge of forgery and attempted suicide in the Tombs by cutting his throat, still improves. The report that Jones was mentally unbalanced is denied at the hospital and it is declared his mind is as clear as ever.

Paymaster Short.

Berlin, Nov. 3.—An army paymaster named Wilde at Darmstadt, has fled and a large defalcation in his accounts have been discovered.

NEW NAVAL SHIPS.

The Construction Board Recommends That Thirty-Two Be Built.

Washington, Nov. 3.—As was finally adopted the United States naval increase for 1901, involves the construction of 32 vessels of 151,000 tons displacement, or more than double that laid down in any preceding year. The list which congress is to be asked to authorize is: Three 15,000 tons battleships, two 15,000 ton armored cruisers, six 2000 ton gunboats, six 800 ton gunboats, two 200 ton gunboats, three 15,000 ton colliers, one 7000 ton repair ship and one 7000 ton marine transport. The board of construction decided to omit the torpedo boats, both surface and submarine, recommended by the policy board of which Admiral Dewey is chairman, but the programme in all other particulars conforms closely to the initial project under discussion a week ago.

The programme makers have confined their project to ships for offense, for police and for naval auxiliary purposes, by the new conditions imposed upon the navy by the increasing importance of American interests in the far east. The five fighting ships proposed are more formidable than any of the same category yet designed. With the 17 now building or authorized and with 6 battleships and 2 armored cruisers already in commission they will give an offense force of 30 ships.

The two gunboats are intended for police duty, principally in the Philippine islands, although adaptable for service in China. The 2900-ton gunboats will be the smallest war vessels, except torpedo boats, ever built for the United States navy, but they will be of the size recommended by all officers of experience in the Philippines as essential to preserving order among the small islands of the archipelago.

The three colliers are designed to deliver in a single voyage from Norfolk, 10,000 tons of coal at Manila, Guam, Pago-Pago or Hawaii.

They are also to have sufficient speed to enable them to accompany a fleet of battleships on a long cruise. They are to be equipped with automatic loading and unloading apparatus to secure greater economy of time, and if necessary would be quickly converted into cable-laying ships for use in the Pacific ocean. The repair vessel, Vulcan, is to be kept in the Philippines and is virtually to be a cruising navy yard.

The proposed maritime transport is to be like the Solace, but half again as large and armed with light guns. She is needed by the marine corps, which now has 6000 dependent on the Solace, or army ships, for transportation. The vessel is to have accommodations for two battalions and to have high speed for the purpose of a force quickly to any scene of disturbance in the east, her headquarters being at Manila.

Hot Fight With Chinese.

London, Nov. 3.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes a dispatch from Ichow, dated Oct. 28, which says heavy fighting has occurred in the mountains on Shansi frontier. The Anglo-German force of 1500 men, commanded by Col. von Norman, stormed Tsching Kung pass. The Chinese occupied a strong position on the crest and stubbornly resisted. They poured a hot fire on the advance party of 80 Germans under Major von Worrester, but the British Bengal cavalry and mounted Sappers dismounted, scaled the heights and turned the enemy's flank and relieved the Germans.

Statement from Patrick's Lawyer.

New York, Nov. 3.—Frederick B. House, counsel for Albert T. Patrick and Charles E. Jones, accompanied by his law partner and notary public formerly in Lawyer Patrick's office, called at the Tombs prison and for two hours were in conference with Patrick. At its conclusion Lawyer House said his client was in a cheerful mood and had no fear for the future. He said Patrick was hopeful of the outcome. Further than this he said he would not disclose the nature of his conference with him. He said it was purely of a personal nature pertaining to the trial.

Murder Trial's Sensational Turn.

Konitz, Prussia, Nov. 3.—The trial which has been in progress for a fortnight past of a number of persons suspected of being implicated in the mysterious murder of the boy, Ernest Winter, here some time ago, in the so-called "ritual crime" has suddenly taken a sensational turn. The murdered boy's father, who is a high official, in a letter addressed to the states attorney, charged a Jewish butcher, Eisenstadt of Prech-Jau, with accomplishing the murder.

A new short story, by Robert Barr, entitled "The Wizard of Wall Street," in Everybody's Magazine for November, has never been exceeded in its quality of interest by anything from the pen of that popular writer.

Democratic representation in all the various conventions is based on the vote for governor, and democrats should see to it that we lose no ground in this respect by piling up as big a majority as possible for Sayers.

IRRIGATION AMENDMENT.

The Eagle has been requested to offer a few words in explanation of the irrigation amendment to be voted on next Tuesday. The amendment is offered to permit the people of Archer, Baylor, Clay, Wichita and Knox counties to form irrigation districts which are necessary to the development of their country. If the amendment carries these districts will have to be formed like school districts by two thirds vote of the people in the communities concerned and if carried the tax levy will be made only in the districts so created and will in not affect people of other sections. The principal opposition to the measure comes from non-resident land owners. It is a good amendment and should carry.

The Eagle has received a copy of the proceedings of the third annual session of the Texas farmers' congress held at College Station in July.

It is time for Bryan to begin the extension of another business street. The volume of business clearly demands it. As the town grows so will the trade grow, and every man will stand a chance to get a greater share of it. Bryan is clearly in a position to outstrip all rivals in this section of the state, and the fault will rest largely with her people if she fails to improve the opportunity.

One of the indisputable evidences of the superiority of Americans over all other peoples is the fact that in the breeding of live stock they have accomplished more in fifty years than has been accomplished by other nations in all preceding time. We now have more and better horses, and faster ones; more and better beeves and milch cows, and hogs and sheep and fowls than any country on the face of the earth.—Farm and Ranch.

The total number of railroad casualties in the United States for the year ending June 30, 1900, was 51,743; of these, 7123 were killed and 44,620 injured. Of the killed 2210, and of the injured 34,923 were railroad employees. The number of passengers killed 239, and the number injured 3452. Of persons other than employees and passengers, 4674 were killed and 6255 were injured. The ratio of fatality to injury in the class called trespassers is far heavier than among any other. Of this class 4040 were killed and 4370 injured.

ENDING THE CAMPAIGN

Bryan and Roosevelt Only a Few Speeches to Make.

ROOSEVELT'S RECORD

He Has Traveled Thousands of Miles and Exceeded Any One in Speechmaking Except the Democratic Candidate.

Owego, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Theodore Roosevelt, Republican candidate for vice president, completed at this place Friday night one of the most remarkable campaigns. In eight weeks he visited 24 states, made 673 speeches, traveled 21,209 miles, visited 567 towns and cities and talked to what is estimated to be 3,000,000 people. This record includes more speeches, more miles traveled and more territory covered than that of all other candidates for president or vice president of the United States, of all other parties for the last 100 years, with the exception of the record made by W. J. Bryan in 1896, and it exceeds Mr. Bryan's record, which was 599 speeches made and 19,000 miles traveled, but does not reach the number of speeches Mr. Bryan made this year, though exceeds the number of miles traveled. This campaign was finished by more than a week's tour of the state of New York, during which the candidate traveled 2004 miles, through 77 counties and made 130 speeches, the majority of them from the rear platform of the train.

The last day included eight stops between Jamestown, in Chautauqua county, and inclusive of Oswego, in Tioga county. The stops varied from two hours in duration at Olean to 10 minutes at other points. He finished at Oswego, the home of United States Senator T. C. Platt.

BRYAN INTERRUPTED.

The Crowd Gets Tired of Disturbance and Police Saves the Man.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—W. J. Bryan's speaking in Chicago Friday comprised 12 speeches. The crowds that greeted him were greater than those of former meetings. The candidate began his itinerary at Handel hall, in the downtown business district, going from there to the public library where he spoke to an outdoor gathering of workmen. After luncheon he made two addresses in Vienna pavilion at Sixteenth street and Cottage Grove avenue, one to the crowd in the building and the other to the throng that was unable to gain admittance. Here was the only semblance of disturbance manifested during the day.

Two men in the audience asked almost simultaneously: "How about North Carolina?" and Mr. Bryan was replying when one of the questioners insisted on asking a question concerning trusts, whereupon the crowd demanded that he be thrown out and threatened to lynch the interrupter. Mr. Bryan insisted upon answering, but could not do so for some time owing to the uproar of the crowd expressing its sentiments toward the inquisitor. The flatter was saved from violence only by police interference.

Mr. Bryan's remaining speeches of the evening were delivered to large crowds at the second regiment armory, Thalia hall and in a pavilion at the stockyards, besides open air meetings at Twenty-eighth and Halsted streets, Twenty-second street and Oakley avenue, and Thirty-first and State streets.

It was after midnight when Mr. Bryan finished his day's labor, his last speech being made to an immense gathering of negro voters on Thirty-first street.

Mr. Bryan will close his campaign tonight and only one other speech is down for him to deliver, that being at Lincoln Monday night.

OVATION TO ADLAI.

He Receives the Greatest Political Welcome Ever Given at Fort Wayne.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Nov. 3.—Adlai E. Stevenson received the greatest ovation ever given to any candidate in Fort Wayne, on Friday, eclipsing even the Bryan reception in 1896. Mr. Stevenson was accompanied by Congressman J. W. Bailey of Texas and Judge Waldo of Canton, O.

There was a parade of farmers, with 2000 men in line, half of them mounted. At night the largest political parade ever seen in the city took place, marching clubs, railway and shopmen, and workmen generally turning out 3500 strong. In the afternoon Mr. Stevenson spoke briefly from the balcony of the Wayne hotel to 3000 people, and at night spoke to an audience of over 5000 at the Princess rink and as many that were unable to secure admission.

OSGOOD FIELD DEAD.

He Was Stricken With Pneumonia in Paris and Complications Set In.

New York, Nov. 3.—Information has been received here of the death in Paris of Osgood Field, formerly of this city. At a month ago Mr. Field, who was in Paris with his wife, was stricken with pneumonia. Complications set in that caused death.

Osgood Field was born in this city in 1833. He was a grandson of Samuel Osgood, who was in Washington's cabinet and also the first postmaster general of the United States. Soon after attaining his majority Mr. Field went to London, where he was for a few years engaged in business. He was a man of considerable fortune, and retired from active business life about 30 years ago.

Russell Fouled Choyuski.

Denver, Nov. 3.—With blood streaming from cuts over each eye, Fred Russell, the California heavy weight, broke from a clinch as the gong sounded the close of the fourth round of his fight with Joe Choyuski, before the Colorado Athletic club and put two stiff punches to Joe's body, knocking him clear through the ropes to the floor, where he remained nearly five minutes. The foul cost Russell the fight, which he probably would have won, but for his inattention to the bell. His weight and great strength were too much for Joe, although the latter, even though very tired, cleverly avoided a number of knockout swings and punches and had Russell's face badly cut up.

Negro Assassinated.

South McAlester, I. T., Nov. 3.—Bob Mitchell, a negro, was assassinated Thursday at Anderson. He was in a house and the shot was fired from the outside. Mitchell had for a short time been living with the wife of another negro man. At the time of the killing they were in a room together, the woman resting her head on his knee. A shotgun was fired from the outside, the entire charge striking the man in the abdomen, producing almost instant death. A few shots struck the woman in the head, but she is only slightly injured. There is no clew to the assassin.

Trees Are Blooming Again.

Guthrie, O. T., Nov. 3.—This has been the most remarkable fall ever known in Oklahoma. There has not been a killing frost yet and everything is growing right along. The heavy rains and warm weather have started new growth in many plants and trees and many peach, apple and plum trees, strawberry plants and lilac bushes are in bloom. In several instances fruit is forming upon trees which bore an abundant crop early in the season.

Paying More Than Buyers.

Denison, Tex., Nov. 3.—The Denison cotton mill is on the local market for cotton. Their buyers bought nine-tenths of the cotton brought to Denison Friday, the price paid being from 8.80 to 8.40 cents. This was much higher price than the buyers for foreign spinners were willing to pay. The cotton mill bought a pretty good stock of cotton at the prices named, and are in the market for more.

Wharton, Tex., Nov. 3.—At a meeting of leading planters $160,000 worth of stock was subscribed and taken to erect a 600-ton daily grinding capacity central sugar plant. Mr. Ellis' proposition was more than met. Articles were drawn, the site to be in Wharton. The machinery is to be of new material and modern improvements. The mill is to be erected by Oct. 1, 1901.

An Actor Dead.

New York, Nov. 3.—Frank Girard, better known by his stage name of Frank Girard, is dead at his home in Brooklyn, the result of diabetes and paralysis. Mr. Girard was 60 years old, and his life was an interesting one, leading from the blacksmith shop to the stage and to the management of Tony Pastor's theater in Manhattan.

THIS IS TO REMIND YOU

That all groceries are not alike. Some are made from cheap materials by poor machinery, and very little care is given to the work. That's the dangerous kind because it's likely adulterated. MONSTER PARADE.

The Closing Scene of the Republicans in New York City.

New York, Nov. 3.—Much disappointment to all interested in the parade held under the auspices of the Business Men's Republican and Sound Money association today. The weather was very unpleasant, the morning opened with a cold rain falling and the streets were in bad condition for the marchers. The rain also caused a little delay in starting.

The streets along the line of march were beautifully decorated. The downtown section of Broadway was ablaze with an enormous number of flags. In some sky scrapers each each window displayed the stars and stripes, and in each block from Battery to Fourteenth street, were large flags bearing the name of McKinley and Roosevelt.

At different points along the line of march were wooden poles about 25 or 30 feet in height, erected by Democrats, on which there were such sentences as the following: "The trusts can make you march, but they cannot make you vote against Bryan." "This is a trust parade and not a Republican parade." On some of the poles were portraits of Bryan and Stevenson. Each of these poles was guarded by a policeman.

First in line was the wholesale dry goods people, then representatives of the clothiers, merchant tailors, retail dry goods men, haberdashers, milliners, hatters, florists, the builder and paper trade and every industry in the city. Included with the marchers was a large division from Brooklyn. The honor of having the largest number of men in line was claimed by the wholesale dry goods trade, their marshal estimating that they numbered 35,000 men.

Governor Roosevelt reviewed the parade at the Battery and he was given a continuous round of applause. He was kept continually bowing to the marchers that passed.

Asks Debs to Withdraw.

Boston, Nov. 3.—The Globe prints an open letter to Eugene V. Debs, urging his withdrawal in favor of Bryan, the signers being Prof. Frank Parsons, president of the National Public Ownership league; B. O. Flower, founder of The Arena; Ellwood Pomeroy, president of the National Direct Legislation league, and Dr. G. W. Galvin, all personal friends of Mr. Debs.

The signers declared that Bryan represents the movement against monopoly, that it is better to take the first step towards improved conditions than no step at all. They claim a vote for Bryan is the first practicable step toward the cooperative commonwealth, though neither Bryan and the Democratic party may realize that fact.

Women in Socialist Parade.

New York, Nov. 3.—One of the most picturesque demonstrations of the present campaign was the Socialist Democratic party parade Friday night, in which over 5000 men and women marched, preliminary to the meeting in Madison Square. Men and women marched side by side, alternately sang "Marseillaise" and chanted "Vote for Freedom! Vote for Debs!" Picturesque floats and unique arrangements made the parade almost spectacular in effect. The red flag of Socialism predominated in the parade, and every marcher wore a red ribbon badge. As the parade reached the square each one of the bands began to play Marseillaise. In the ranks, which numbered several trade organizations, marched many women who cheered for the candidates of the party. Many made addresses.

Big Republican Demonstration.

Pittsburg, Nov. 3.—The campaign closed here today. The Republicans had an imposing demonstration. Clubs and delegations from all parts of eastern Pennsylvania, West Virginia and western Pennsylvania were in line and the number of marchers variously estimated at from 30,000 to 40,000.

The evening was given over to the Democrats who had arranged for a monster torchlight parade and mass meeting.

Fraudulent Registration.

St. Louis, Nov. 3.—Warrants have been issued for the arrest of 350 men charged with having registered fraudulently at different precincts in the downtown wards of the Twelfth congressional district. The committee sent registered letters to names as they appeared on the voters' list from rooming houses and saloons in the districts and more than 1000 of these letters have been returned with the report of the postoffice department that the persons named do not live at places shown on the registration list. On the strength of these reports warrants have been asked for the arrest of more than 1000 persons.

Socialistic Speakers Arrested.

New York, Nov. 3.—Six speakers of the Socialist Labor party, who insisted on talking to an enormous crowd at Seventh street and Avenue C, Friday night, were arrested by the police. They had procured no permit to speak and defied the police when requested to stop speaking. The police had no other course to pursue as they had no right to grant permit which the law requires to be obtained before any great crowd can gather upon the streets of the city.

Cleveland Will Not Vote.

New York, Nov. 3.—Grover Cleveland and E. C. Benedict will not vote for Bryan or McKinley. They will duck out in Maryland on election day.

Hanna Makes Three Speeches.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Senator Hanna addressed three meetings Friday night, the largest one being at Western avenue and Bloomingdale road, where the big circus tent in which the meeting was held, was packed. Senator Hanna spoke practically without interruption.

Barker Picks McKinley.

Erie, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Wharton Barker, middle-of-the-road Populist candidate for president, predicts the election of McKinley by a greater majority than before.

NEED MEXICAN DOLLARS.

Officers in the Philippines Asks to Be Permitted to Purchase Them.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Mr. Tracewell, the comptroller of the treasury, has received from Lieutenant Fuller of the United States army, disbursing officer in the Philippines, a letter asking for authority to purchase in Hong Kong or wherever it may be obtained at best advantage Mexican silver for the payment of native employees of the ordinance department and others with whom official dealing are had. The transactions in the islands, it is said, are all in Mexican dollars.

The comptroller says he sees no objection to the plans proposed which appears to have for its object a saving of expenses to the government, but in view of the provisions of section 3651 of the revised statutes he has grave doubts as to the legality of any exchange of funds and as the question is one of the general law and public policy he suggests that the opinion of the attorney general be obtained on the subject.

WILL PAY THE DEBT.

The Goulds Think it Disgrace to Have a Gould in Debt.

New York, Nov. 3.—On the authority of an "intimate friend of the late Jay Gould," the Evening World announces that the debts of Count Boni de Castellane will be paid in full by the Goulds at once.

"The scandal attending the claims amounting to $4,000,000 of the spendthrift husband of the Countess Annie is to be stopped," he said.

The World adds that a lump sum will probably be contributed by the Goulds to wipe out these debts, as they consider the honor of the Gould family is involved.

"Incidentally," the Evening World adds, "it was elicited that the Gould millions have nearly doubled since Jay Gould's death, and Anna's share is nearly $18,000,000 and her income nearly $1,000,000. The total value of the Gould estate is now over $125,000,000."

Tried to Kill a Clown.

Naples, Tex., Nov. 3.—A difficulty occurred at Baryans Mills, a small town near here, in which a teamster connected with a show was shot and fatally wounded. The shot was fired at one of the clowns of the show and took effect in the teamster. The trouble grew out of a difficulty at this place the day before, in which the clown struck a boy with a whip for tarring his shirt and pants while he was with a street parade through the town.

Miss Barton Going Home.

Galveston, Nov. 3.—Miss Clara Barton, president of the American National Red Cross, has concluded that it will not be necessary for her to remain here after about Nov. 10, and she is preparing to return to Washington.
